STRUCTURED TRANSITIONAL LIVING

CHOR Youth & Family Services Structured Transitional Living program is a 16-bed licensed transitional therapeutic independent living program that will provide young men ages 14 to 20 years old, with a safe therapeutic home like environment. The program is located in Germantown, PA.

Youth can participate in home, school, work, and community events as any typical teenager would, and provides a solid foundation for the youth's social, emotional, and psychological growth while they gain a sense of belonging that they may have been missing throughout prior placements or home life.

The youth gain a sense of belonging through the process of normalizing their daily lives in the Structured Transitional Living program. This positive approach to their day-to-day functioning, as well as their future, allows them to stabilize emotionally, recognize and develop their talents and strengths, and begin to acquire the skills and assets required to successfully transition into self-sufficient young adulthood.

The Structured Transitional Living program will be seeking Pennsylvania Academic Career and Technical Training (PACTT) affiliation. The PACTT affiliation will provide additional opportunities for the youth to learn how to improve their academic career/technical skills while they are in the program.
